29/7/67 Dear all, came here from Thessaloniki in a lorry in two days. Only arrived last night - so I haven't seen anything yet. Your mail hasn't yet arrived but I'm staying a few days at least.

It's a bit cooler here than Greece, there are soldiers everywhere in Greece and we saw a large camp of several thousand in the mountains.

Love, John.

Dear all, hitched from Rome to Rimini and Trieste. Got a good lift from Trieste to Dubrovnik with three American girls. I'm taking the bus across the mountains to Skopje. Write to me Post Restante Istanbul by air letter please. So far I've only received the birthday card.

I'm keeping well but have lost some weight in the heat. Hope you are all well. I've washed my jeans already. Love, John.

4/8/67 Dear all, received your letter this morning. I've been staying some distance from Istanbul on the North Bank of the Sea of Marmara in a nice youth hostel. There's about 20 English people there and we spend all day on the beach which costs 1/6d a day-ticket but it has showers & a cafe. This postcard shows the Blue mosque which is really beautiful inside. I'm going back to Greece tomorrow.
Love, John.
